

Gabrielle Yarbrough is a Customs Compliance and Foreign Trade Zone Manager for Kubota North America located in Gainesville and Jefferson, Georgia. She graduated from Young Harris College with a Bachelor's of Science in Business and Public Policy with a minor concentrated in Russian History. Gabrielle started at Kubota six years ago and helped to implement one of the largest subzones in the state of Georgia. Subzone 26P encompasses 11 production lines across seven factories producing 120,000 units annually of lawn and farm tractors, professional turf mowers, skid steer loaders, and four-wheel utility vehicles.