

David Ostheimer

David is the Managing Partner of Lamb & Lerch, a law firm that specializes exclusively in customs and international trade law.

Upon graduation from Syracuse University College of Law, David served as a trial attorney in the United States Department of Justice and was responsible for defending U.S. Customs.

In 1977, David joined the law firm of Lamb & Lerch as an associate and became a partner in 1980.

David has been an active member of the National Association of Foreign-Trade Zones, having served as a Director from 1989 through 1993, a member of the Executive Committee from 1993 through 1999, and as an Honorary Director since 2001. He was elected to be a Life Member in 2008.

David provides legal advice and guidance to numerous Grantees, Operators and Users of FTZs throughout the United States and has been personally involved in all aspects of establishing and operating zones and sub-zones.